Wisconsin in the Civil War

Tuesday, November 10, 3pm

Zoom: register online at
cityofmuskego.org/libraryevents

The artifact collection at The Civil War Museum of Kenosha is filled with objects that tell wonderful stories about the soldiers, civilians and the Upper Midwestern communities that participated in this period of American history. Curator Doug Dammann will share some of their amazing stories and use them to teach about the importance of Wisconsin and the Upper Midwest during the Civil War.

November is National Caregiver Month

Friday, November 13,
10am-1pm

Drive Thru: register online at bit.ly/2ErO6gl or call ADRC at 262-548-7883

ADRC, in partnership with the Bridges Library System and Dementia Friendly Waukesha County will be recognizing Waukesha County caregivers with a gift bag of goodies! Caregivers caring for a senior over the age of 60 or a grandparent over the age of 55 raising a grandchild are invited to participate in this contactless drive-thru event.

THE RETIREMENT CLASSROOM

Getting to Know Medicare

Tuesday, November 24, 6pm

Zoom: register online at
cityofmuskego.org/libraryevents

With the help of the Retirement Classroom, navigate your way through Medicare's rules, options, and insurance market can seem impossible. You can quickly get lost attempting to make sense of the A's, B's, C's, and D's of Medicare and the Open Enrollment Periods. Even more convoluting is the sales pitch that generally comes with any type of Medicare education!

Screening of "Hell's Half Acre: The True Story Of The Lost Battalion"

Monday, November 30, 3pm

Zoom: register online at
cityofmuskego.org/libraryevents

Robert Laplander will be live via Zoom to introduce this presentation he gave at the National WWI Museum and Memorial's 2018 Symposium. Participants will then view the presentation recording as a group with the ability to ask Robert questions throughout the showing.

Take & Make: Adult/Teen DIY-To-Go Kits

Available Beginning
November 2

Each month we invite adults and teens to drop by the Library for a craft project you can take home and make. We'll give you a bag filled with all the supplies you will need and instructions for how to make your craft. One bag per person while supplies last. Kits can be picked up at the Reference Desk.
